FIRST PEOPLES BANK OF TENNESSEE
INTERNET BANKING AGREEMENT / DISCLOSURE

This Internet Banking Agreement and Disclosure (“the Agreement”) explains the terms and conditions governing basic Internet Banking services and bill pay services offered by First Peoples Bank of Tennessee (collectively “Internet Banking Services”). By using any of the Internet Banking Services, you agree to abide by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The terms “we”, “us”, “our”, and “First Peoples Bank” refer to Financial Institution. “You” refers to each person who enrolls for Internet Banking Services and has a password. The term “business days” means Monday through Friday, excluding Saturday, Sunday, and banking holidays.

Your Internet Banking services and each of your accounts are also governed by the applicable Disclosures, Rates, and Fee Schedules provided by First Peoples Bank of Tennessee in your new account packet as each may be modified from time to time and collectively, the “First Peoples Bank of Tennessee Documents”.

You are responsible for paying any fees associated with Internet Banking and bill payment as well as any additional fees that may be assessed by your Internet Service Provider and for any telephone charges or fees incurred by accessing Internet Banking Services.

Your initial use of Internet Banking Services constitutes your acceptance and agreement to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and by “First Peoples Bank of Tennessee”, and acknowledges your receipt and understanding of this Agreement.

First Peoples Bank of Tennessee is entitled to act on instructions received through Internet Banking under your password and without inquiring into the identity of the person using that password. However, do not, under any circumstances, disclose your password by telephone or to anyone claiming to represent First Peoples Bank of Tennessee. First Peoples Bank of Tennessee’s employees do not need and should not ask for your password. You are liable for all transactions made or authorized using your password. First Peoples Bank of Tennessee has no responsibility for establishing the identity of anyone using your password. If, despite First Peoples Bank of Tennessee’s advice, you give your password to anyone, you do so at your own risk since anyone to whom you give your Internet Banking password or other means of access will have full access to your accounts even if you attempt to limit that person’s authority. You must notify First Peoples Bank of Tennessee that your password has been lost, stolen or otherwise compromised and should not be honored and must be disabled.

If two (2) people hold a joint checking account, then there are two (2) ways to enroll for Internet Banking Services. Both account holders may enroll separately and each will have his/her own password, and his/her own separate Internet Banking Agreement. Each such joint account holder is subject to separate Internet Banking Service fees as applicable. Alternately, one holder of a joint account can enroll for Internet Banking Services with one password issued and be subject to fees for one person. You are liable for all transactions that you, or if you are using a joint Bill Payment Account, any of you, make or authorize, even if the person you authorize exceeds your authority. You hereby release First Peoples Bank of Tennessee from any liability and agree not to make any claim or bring any action against us for honoring or allowing any action or transactions where you have authorized the person performing the action or transaction to use your account(s) and /or you have given your password to such person, or, in the case of a jointly held account such person is one of the owners of the account. You agree to indemnify First Peoples Bank of Tennessee and hold it harmless from and against any and all liability (including but not limited to reasonable attorney fees) arising from any such claims or actions. First Peoples Bank of Tennessee has the right to modify or terminate this Agreement at any time. We will comply with any notice requirements under applicable law for such changes or termination. If we modify this Agreement, your continued use of Internet Banking Services will constitute your acceptance of such changes in each instance.

You also accept responsibility for the proper use of your device. We will not be liable for any losses caused by your failure to properly use the service or your device.

Your secret code (PIN) will give you access to your accounts via Mobile Banking. For security purposes, it is recommended that you memorize your PIN and do not write it down. We also recommend that you change your PIN regularly to try and avoid misappropriation by a third-party. You are responsible for keeping your PIN and account data confidential. When you give someone your PIN, you are authorizing that person to use Internet Mobile Banking and on-line financial services and you are responsible for all transactions performed using your PIN. In addition, fraudulent transactions initiated using your PIN will be charged against your account(s).

You agree that when using the Bank's Mobile Banking service, you remain subject to the terms and conditions of your existing agreements with any unaffiliated service providers, including but not limited to, your mobile service provider and that this agreement does not amend or supersede any of those agreements. You further agree to be solely responsible for all such fees, limitations and restrictions. You agree that only your mobile service provider is responsible for its products and services and you agree to resolve any problems with your mobile service provider directly without involving the Bank.

You should review the account disclosures carefully, as they may include transaction limitations and fees which may apply to your use of Mobile Banking.

Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your Device or secret code has been lost or stolen, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). If you tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Device or secret code, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your Device or secret code without your permission.

If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Device or code, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your Device or secret code without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by the Device, code or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

BUSINESS DAYS

For purposes of these disclosures, our business days are Monday through Friday. Holidays are not included.

You can usually access on-line financial services seven (7) days a week, twenty-four (24) hours a day. However, at certain times, some or all of Mobile Banking or on-line financial services may not be available due to system maintenance or reasons beyond our control. We do not warrant that Mobile Banking or on-line financial Services will be available at all times. When unavailable, you may use our telephone banking system, an automated teller machine ("ATM"), or one of our branch offices to conduct your transactions.

SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHT TO RECEIVE DOCUMENTATION OF TRANSFERS

- (A) Terminal Transfers. You can get a receipt at the time you make any transfer to or from your account using one of our automated teller machines or point-of-sale terminals. For purchases and cash advances using your Mobile Banking, you will get a receipt from the merchant or financial institution for each transaction. You may not receive a receipt if the amount of the transfer is $15.00 or less.
- (B) Preauthorized Credits. If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you can call us at 865-475-9052 to find out whether or not the deposit has been made.
- (C) Periodic Statements. You will get a monthly account statement concerning your checking account and a quarterly account statement covering your savings account unless there are no transfers in a particular month to or from your savings account. In any case, you will get the statement covering your savings account at least quarterly.

RIGHT TO STOP PAYMENT

- (A) Right To Stop Payment and Procedure for Doing So. If you have told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments. Here is how:
Call us at 865-475-9052 or write us at First Peoples Bank of Tennessee, Bookkeeping Department, P. O. If you call, we may also require you to put your request in writing and get it to us within 14 days after you call. (Please see our latest fee schedule or call 865-475-9052 for our stop payment fee for each stop payment.)
- (B) Notice of Varying Amounts. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay will tell you, 10 days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. (You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.)
- (C) Liability for Failure to Stop Payment of Preauthorized Transfers. If you order us to stop one of these payments three business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

SUMMARY OF OUR LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO MAKE TRANSFERS

If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages as provided by federal law. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance:

- f. If the funds in your accounts are subject to a court order or other restriction preventing the transfer.
- g. If a merchant or financial institution fails to accept the Device, code, or its instructions
- h. If you have not provided the correct information, including but not limited to the correct account information, or the correct name and address or phone number of the receiver to whom you are sending a payment;

- i. If you, or anyone you allow, commits fraud or violates any law or regulation;
- j. If your account is closed or has been frozen; and/or
- k. There may be other exceptions stated in our agreement with you.

If we are unable to complete the transaction for any reason associated with your account(s) (for example, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer), the transaction may not be completed. In some instances, you may receive a return notice from us. In each such case, you agree that: (a) You will reimburse us immediately upon demand the transaction amount that has been returned to us and for any fees or costs we incur in attempting to collect the amount of the return from you.
